

CREEPY LAC-EDOUARD SANATORIUM VISIT BY JOEL

In Feb 2010, I had the chance to visit an abandoned sanatorium, in remote Lac Edouard. It was built in the early 1900's. The place is abandoned now for at least 30 years, so it was a fun visit. Here's a few pictures...

The main building is fairly large and has three floors:

It is surrounded by smaller empty buildings, and a water tower:

The main entrance:

Of course I start head first in the basements!

Everywhere, the ceiling is falling down, torn apart by age and neglect. Cement and plaster from the walls and came to dust and litter the floor.

An observation deck, third floor:

The third floor main hall is flooded with water and icy:

The elevator door:

And yes, there is even a room 13!
